

Saltmarsh Habitat

Featured here is the Orange-bellied Parrot (Neophema chrysogaster), a critically endangered parrot that migrates from south-west Tasmania to the Australian mainland each autumn.

These parrots visit the saltmarsh habitats along the mainland including the Bellarine Peninsula, where they feed on plants like Beaded Glasswort (Salicornia quinqueflora), featured here.

Images by David Cook (Orange-bellied Parrot) and Bernie Lingham (Beaded Glasswort)

